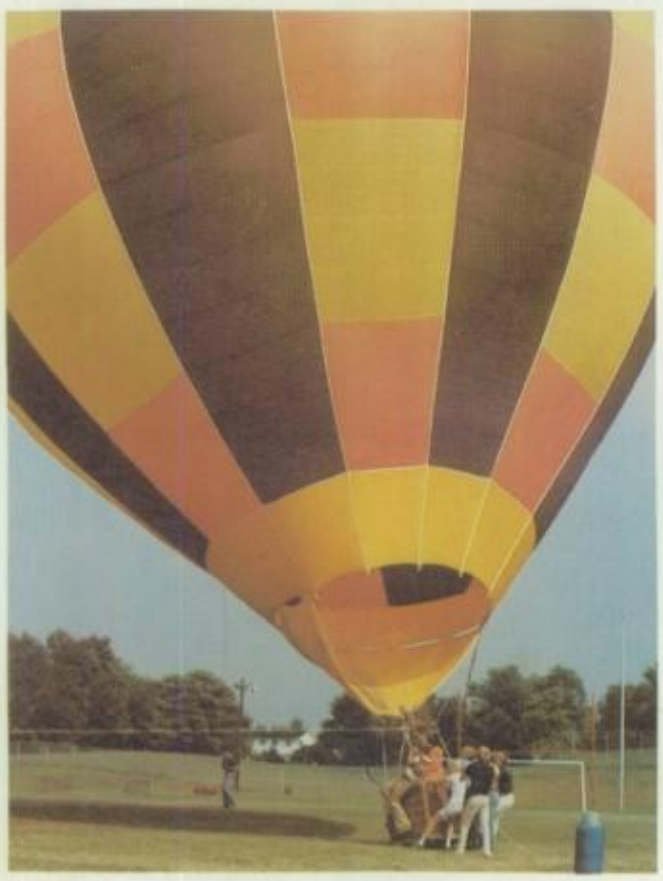
Inbetween

Inbetween yesterday and tomorrow lies today. We are what we are at present because of our past. As today rapidly became our yesterday, we prepared quickly for tomorrow. This day receded into yesterday; retaining it was impossible. As the old days ended new ones replaced them. We were standing inbetween.

Brenda Davis and Janine Scully socialized with numerous teachers during the tea.

Colerain's popular opinion that they were number one was demonstrated after a night victory.

Yesterday And Tomorrow



Debbie Lutterbei enjoyed "taking care of business."

Donna Schafer, Eleni Raptes, and Sheila Ludmann examined their brand new yearbooks.

Dr. Jones, superintendent of the Northwest School District, was a welcome guest at the teachers' tea.

Tina Perrino, Beth Miller and Andie Ruehrwein expressed moments of excitement at the signing party.

Livingston Road II topped off the party singing "Signed, Sealed, and Delivered."

Carl Banks attends the tea with delight.

Mr. Early and Mrs. Sage were among those who enjoyed themselves on Halloween Day at the teachers' tea.

Mr. Doss explained facts about hot air ballooning.

He started the process at ground level.

Hot air was blown into the "October".

A glance of the inside of the balloon.

The "October" ready to take off.

Inbetween Sunrise And Sunset

For many students, rising with the sun was a regular routine five days out of the week. After 2:15, many students rushed home to go to work, watch T.V., or ride around in their cars. Most of all, school was off the brain, and concentration was on letting the good times roll. On the weekends (it was important to note) most teenagers attended sports events, movies, concerts, parties; worked or shopped. Everyone just tried to make the best out of their weekend away from school.

Bus service returned with the passage of the levy.

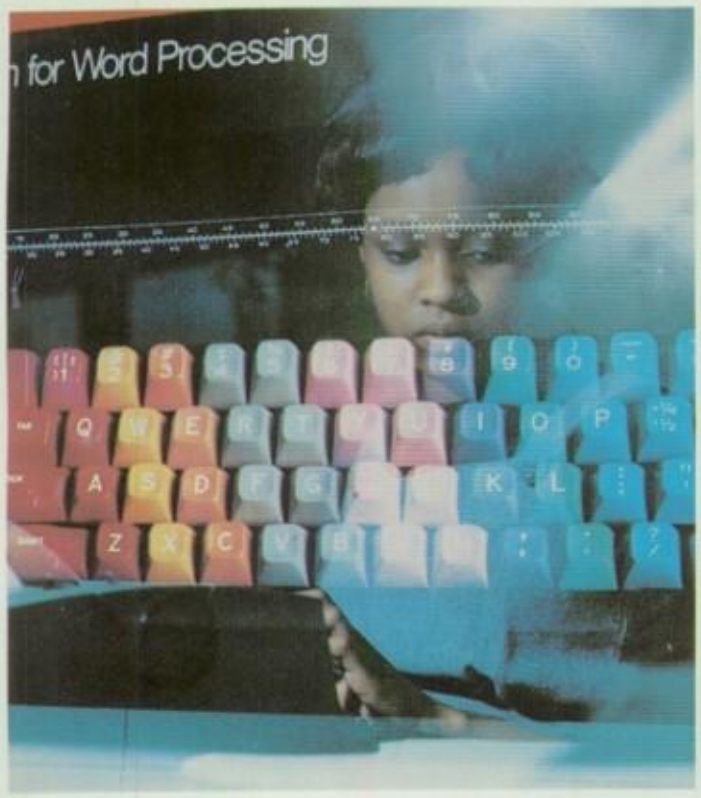
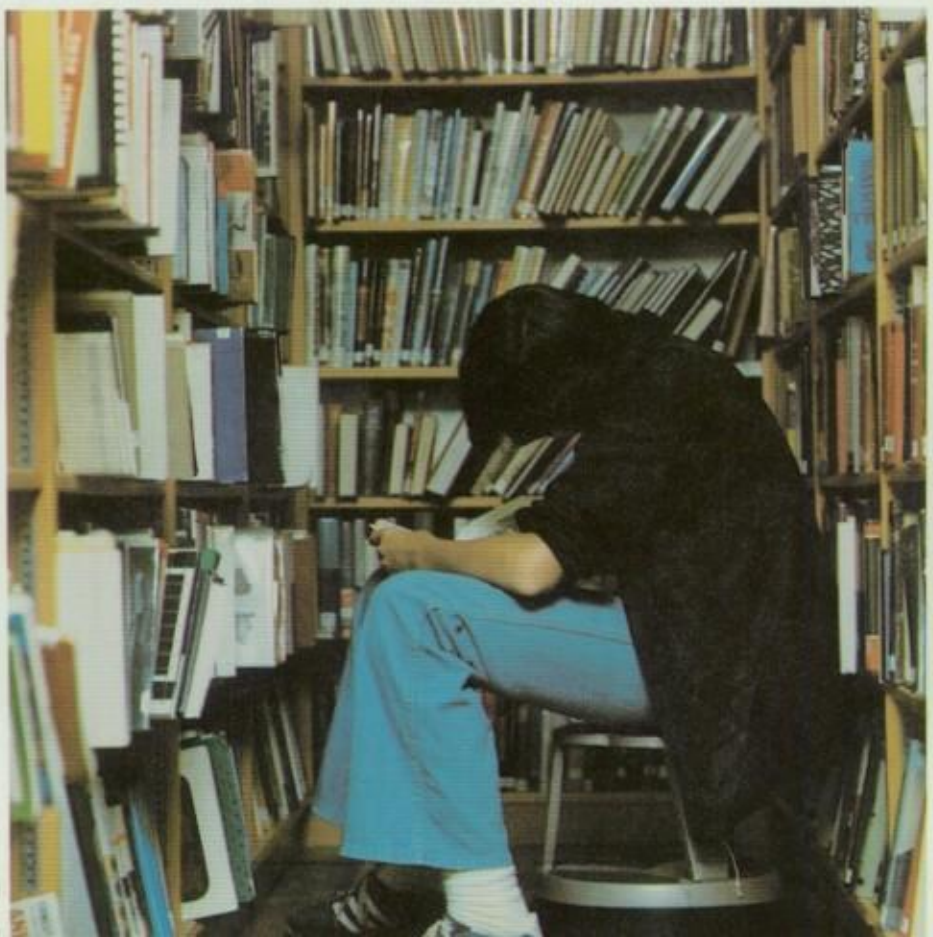
Nancy Brewer helped Mrs. Sage direct the Rhythmettes.

Sharon Dechert receives a sports award from Mr. Kocica.



Inbetween September And June



Inbetween September and June there were days of getting acquainted with teachers. The sophomores joined the juniors and seniors in displaying school spirit. Activities were planned all year long to get students involved in their school. The year started off rocking as the band, Livingston Road II, played for the first yearbook signing party in Colerain's history. Other exciting events in the fall included Football Homecoming and the visit of "October", Mr. Doss' hot-air balloon. The phenomenal Flying Cards, under the guidance of "Coach of the Year", Ken Meibers, brought home Colerain's first State Cross Country Championship. The Varsity Football team upheld its tradition by bringing home the league title for the fourth year. Slowly but surely the year wound its way toward June and another long awaited summer vacation for all.

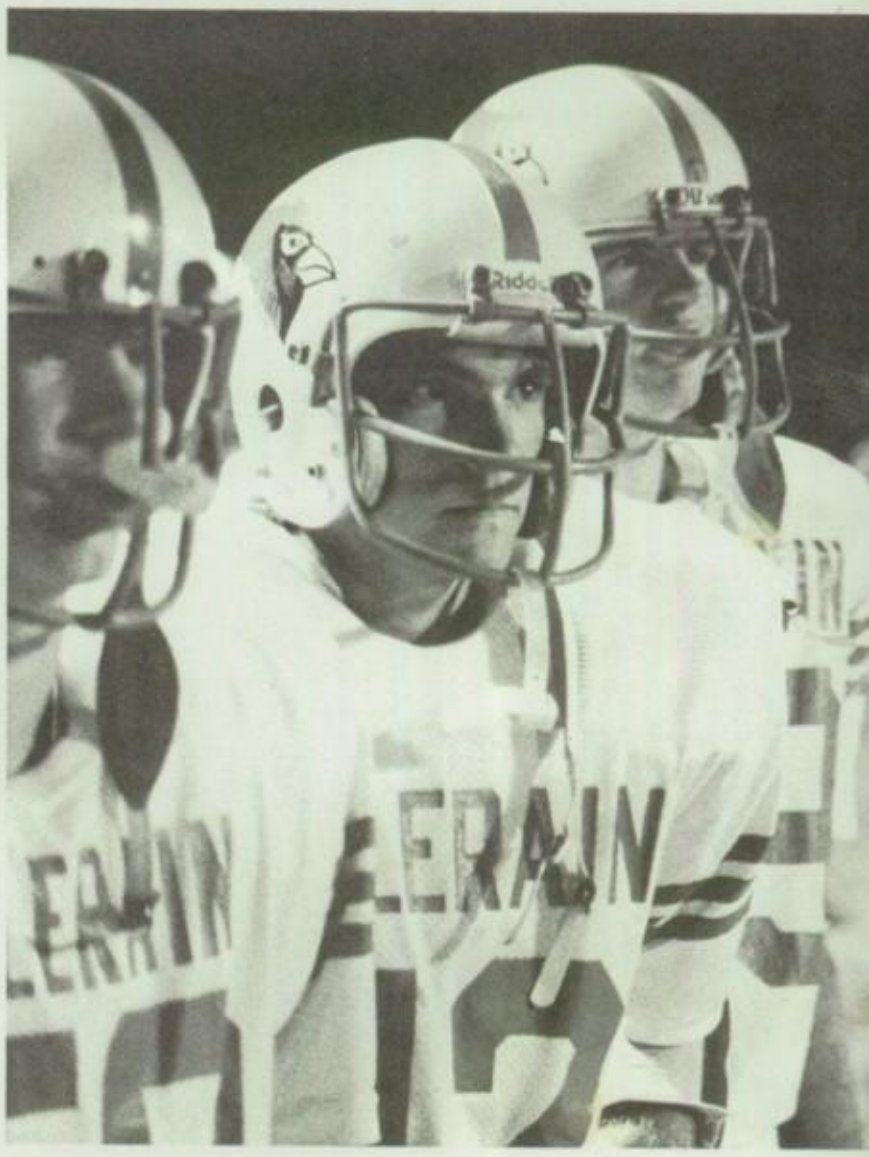
Just



Pondering amidst the imaginable thought came creativity. All through high school the books, studies, hard work and activities helped to develop individual personality. The treasures collected became implanted in the mind. No matter how minute it was, the knowledge attained was to be kept throughout the years to come. The key to the treasures was secret to each individual. Knowing what remained inside was just between us.

Hot, Cold And Inbetween

A typical winter scene of the Vocational building.

A picturesque glimpse of a Colerain winter wonderland.

Kenny Brooks retired in 1978 after many years of dedicated work as the custodian at Colerain.

The weather this year was as predictable as Cincinnati weather could ever be. The adage, "If you don't like the weather in Cincinnati, wait a few minutes, and it will change," held true this year. The severe weather warnings first predicted had not materialized by Christmas.

Students' and teachers' moods were unpredictable this year and seemed to change as quickly as the weather. The sudden appearance of the sun during a previously cloudy day could raise the spirits almost as much as the seldom heard phrase, "no homework tonight!"

The temperature inside the building could indeed seldom be accurately forecast from room to room. In some rooms we braved near freezing temperatures only to find ourselves roasting alive in another. Should we dress for hot, cold or inbetween?

Many students bundled themselves up to stay warm inside the school as well as out in the brisk cold.

Sophomores taking a tour of Colerain on a warm summer day.

Many students were seen practicing on the football fields their routines on a nice cool day.

Students were often seen going home after fourth bell on days that were hot, cold or inbetween.

ORGANIZATIONS

V.I.C.A.

"Preparing for Leadership in the World of Work" is the motto of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. At Colerain, V.I.C.A. is the largest and one of the most active organizations. Throughout the school year, V.I.C.A. sponsored activities which created enthusiasm among its members and encouraged them to strive for the highest possible standards in their work. At Halloween, a pumpkin carving contest was held and won by Senior Diesel. V.I.C.A. also collected food for needy families at Christmas and Thanksgiving. Members also turned in excellent performances at local, district, regional, and state competitions.

Hey All You Soccer Fans

Cheering the soccer team onto victory was the job of this year's Soccerettes. Money-making projects for the Soccerettes included a carwash, a candy sale, and a button sale. Making signs and decorating lockers before each game also kept the girls busy. Homecoming representatives for the '78-'79 season were Diane Griewe and Debbie Contant. Colerain Spirit Boosters

Cheering at sports events was only a small part of a Colerain cheerleader's responsibility. They were the source of school spirit through banners and assemblies and money-making projects such as the Spirit Chain (which the seniors won this year) and the Ugly Man Contest, whose revival entertained everyone. Halftime Perfection

One of the best drill teams Colerain has produced highlighted halftime shows this year. The Rhythmettes captured first place in inspection and second place in performance at the Southwest Drill Team Competition. Captains Becky Bicknaver, Jackie Stanley, and Sandy Bennett were chosen for the All-American Drill Team.

Feature twirler Lori Troescher headed a majorette squad which enjoyed a successful and busy performing season. The girls twirled at football and basketball games, assemblies, and parades with the band. They also held their traditional Sweetest Day flower sale.

Pride And Precision

Football games wouldn't be the same without the halftime performances of the Marching Cardinals. More than 120 musicians sacrificed long hours in hot and cold weather to perfect their routines. Pride motivated the group to give their superior shows at all the football games the the Harvest Home Parade.

That pride carried on in Pep Band, a voluntary organization composed of marching band members. This band gave basketball games and assemblies spirit, as well as helping the Boosters with their annual fund drive.

Student Council

Serving the student body and promoting student involvement were the aims of this year's Student Council. Each month, a committee of representatives honored a pupil as Student of the Month. The traditional t-shirt and candy sales and the Doughnut Shop were carried out, as well as exchanges with other schools. The council kept Colerain students entertained by bringing into being a disco dance workshop, the Kiss-a-Pig Contest, and the annual Talent Show.

Creativity

Colerain students showed great interest in all facets of the fine arts. Photography Club allowed students to go on field trips and share pictures and ideas. The Art Club sold handmade dolls and crafted the scenery for the spring musical.

Students were kept well-read by the Quill staff and Literary Guild. In its farewell year, the journalism class published a sometimes controversial but enjoyable newspaper.

F.T.A.

Potential educators formed the Future Teachers of America. This group communicated with the faculty by sponsoring the Teachers' Tea and serving coffee and doughnuts on In-Service Day. F.T.A. enjoyed a huge success with their annual Christmas Dance.

F.H.A.

Future Homemakers of America promotes home economics and good family life and provides leadership opportunities for vocational home economics students. In Colerain's chapter of the national organization, each Home Economics I and II is a club. The officers elected from these two clubs planned the year's activities, which included a second place finish in the homecoming banner competition, speakers at meetings, a roller skating party, a trip to a regional rally and the state F.H.A. convention, and money making projects such as pennant, jewelry, flower, and hot pretzel sales.

Office Aides

Sacrificing their study halls to help in the library, A.V.A., and office were the Office Aides. The students in A.V.A. delivered and set up speakers, microphones, filmstrips, projectors, and screens. The Library Assistants checked out books and magazines and ran the copy machine. Other students helped out the administrators by working in the main, athletic, and counselors' offices.

PEOPLE

INBETWEEN

The doors are open now.
Standing inbetween, the confusion mounts . . .
Those reoccurring memories of yesterday grasp the adolescent . . .
The product of countless learning years yearns for final independence.

Beyond those doors, images of the future flash by.
Conquerous desires engulf the young mind . . .
Graduation robes and tears appear before the eyes . . .
Almost wishing to pass this moment by, fear arises.

Passing through the doors, the adolescent departs . . .
Lasting impressions of the past remain.

SECOND GENERATION GRADUATES

With the approach of graduation, seniors found themselves reflecting upon the past, along with questioning the future. However for those few pictured left, graduation once again reminded all of the quality students departing from Colerain. These were Second Generation Graduates whose parents also enjoyed the benefits of the excellent learning atmosphere offered to everyone. Colerain was truly proud of this display of its succession in obtaining pre-established educational goals.

Today the future is here to stay.
Tomorrow the past will fade away.
My memories lie so near to my heart,
That I'm almost regretting the day I'll depart.
Searching for reassurance at the time of my farewell
I find no consolation when I hear the final bell.

COLERAIN
STAT

In 1979 at Colerain, there were thirteen sets of students who appeared to many as the Cardinal Double-Takes. Seeing one in the hall was apt to leave a person with the feeling that he had "double vision". There were seven sets of twin girls, five sets of twin guys, and only one of the sets included a guy and a girl. The twins not pictured were Kevin and Kerry Mullaney, Bill and Scott Engel, and Regina and Renea Clay. When dealing with a Cardinal Double-Take, it was sometimes difficult to know which one you were speaking to.

Those Who Reigned

Thirty Queen Candidates and Thirty Escorts awaited the announcement of 1979's Football Homecoming Queen anxiously at ten thirty p.m. Kim Heffron was second runner up and Holly Gibson placed first runner up. Amidst tension and tears, Tina Perrino was crowned the queen. Rigussloo, the band, dedicated one slow song to all the beautiful queen candidates. Even though the football games was postponed due to rain, the dance turned out to be a success.

Live!

Tradition, punctuated by a disco beat, became the sound of the Christmas Dance and the Basketball Homecoming. For many, disco clothes replaced the usual formal gowns. Unchanged however, was the air of tension which surrounded the announcement of the lucky couples on these occasions.

Jackie Stanley revealed Peggy Hayden and Bobby Zoz as Queen and King of the Christmas Winter Wonderland. Crowned Queen of the Basketball Homecoming was Amy Dunn. Many of the couples danced disco to popular songs such as "Disco Inferno", "Saturday Night Fever", "Long Time", "Tragedy", etc. Solemn romance replaced the latter for a few moments of slow rhythm performed by the bands BROWNROAD and FANTASY.

Of Fall River

This year Drama Club and Thespian Troupe 1093 presented the first successful drama in many years, Lizzie Borden of Fall River. Captivated audiences on November 17th and 18th watched the gloomy and suspenseful story of Lizzie's parents' murder unfold. Viewers were treated to intricate character changes and an unexpected twist in the final scene. From 1892 to the present, the identity of the murderer remains an unanswered question.

Best Performance winners Anna Jones and Tom Hair highlighted a superlative cast. Without the devoted crew, a successful performance would not have been possible. Director Miss Stephens earned a well-deserved round of applause for the leadership given in all facets of the production.

February 16th and 17th gave Drama Club and Thespian Troupe 1093 the opportunity to perform UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE, a comedy centered upon a new teacher's adventures in a discpline-minded school. Sylvia Barrett led her students to self-discovery, and they in turn gave her enlightment.

Four-time Best Performance winner Anna Jones headed a cast of principles, who brought familiar classmates to the minds of both older and younger generations. Performance co-recepient Brian Wikoff highlighted a cast of thirty whose untiring efforts were obvious. Director Miss Stephens and her crew guided the actors in their superb dramatics.

GYPSY

DANCED INTO THE HEARTS OF ALL

Gypsy danced into the hearts of all as Drama Club and Thespian Troupe 1093 once again presented talented actors selected for the show. The musical was based on the memoirs of Gypsy Rose Lee. The story showed the struggle of Rose attempting to make her two daughters, June and Louise, stars. Rose's dream was not quite fulfilled when June eloped after many years of being nagged. Louise's fortune heightened at the opportunity of becoming a stripper. Soon, Louise was to succeed in becoming the infamous Gypsy Rose Lee as Rose would also realize her destiny.

Hilsner Venner!

Greetings Friends! I have now been at this high school for almost a year, and I have made a lot of friends and had a lot of wonderful experiences. I am very glad that I decided to come to your country. This is an experience which I am never going to forget. I want to thank all of you students from this year for the feelings you had towards me and for your help and understanding. If anyone would like to go overseas, then DO IT! It is an experience of a life time.

I will always remember Colerain.

DENMARK

The "puckered farmers" escorted by fine city dwellers.

Squealing with delight, Anna Jones readies for the affectionate climax of the contest.

Laughingly, Cynthia Oxley introduced the unbelievable Oinkettes.

The debut of the Oinkettes was met by instantaneous hilarity.

Kiss A Pig . . .

The most ridiculous event occurred n the gymnasium about 1:30 on a sunny spring afternoon. Sixteen ambiguous young men clad in white shirts, blue jean shorts, and white dixie cup "pig noses" tried to march in rhythm across the floor. On stage they were known as the "Oinkettes"; off stage was another story. The show began as these hilarious looking young men performed a dance to "Old McDonald." The contest was off to a rolling start of comedy, laughter, and a little pink pig asleep in the play pen. Presidents' Council was soon revealed by Wendy Ludovici, the M.C. The council portrayed a group of pig farmers consciously awaiting the announcement of the winning president. Not only would the winner inherit a bag of money for his organization, but also a romantic moment to kiss the little pig. It was announced that Anna Jones was the lucky recipient and, embarrassed and delighted, shared a tender moment with the pig who was regaled in a purple ribbon.

CHINK, CHINK, CHINK

Chink, chink, chink
All the change does sing
Rhythm and rhyme and melody
For only does the exchange sing,
Chink, chink, chink.

A penny there, a quarter here
And pushing a few buttons
Make harmony — Oh this cashier
Tis you who chinks and hums
The chink, chink, chink.

Through the lines
Past the market
Drop your dimes
Empty your pockets
Sing — chink, chink, chink.

Chink, chink, chink
Rises and rings
For tis only change
From the growling,
Grumbling hunger pangs.

Leave the chink behind
And enter thee
Into the room not blind
But rather as free
From all the
Chink, Chink, Chink!

"Shine On" Seniors!

The 1979 Seniors held their fondly anticipated festivity — The Prom — on May 18th at Music Hall. Swaying couples and dancing feet highlighted the room decorated to compliment the theme of "Shine On." Glowing smiles and hearty laughter illuminated inward excitement of the nite and fast approaching Graduation. Sincere devotion by Cynthia Oxley, Chairperson, was evident throughout the romance-filled room. The sounds of Blue Tater vibrated on the dance floor and within the hearts of all. Unique to the '79 Prom was the featured talents of Andie Ruehrwein and Wendy Ludovici, who created the song "Shine On" which was individual to each senior. The hour of midnight brought the announcement of the King and Queen. Crowned were Brian Wikoff and Kim Heffron. The class chose "Tonite's The Nite" as their song. Light blue and the rose were voted as favorite flower and color. The nite will never escape its treasured place in the seniors' hearts and minds.

1978-79 marked the first league victory for Colerain's Gymnastic team. Their undefeated record of 12-0 proved the girls were well worthy of the League Championship. The Lakota team, who was working on a 2½ year winning streak, fell before the agile Cardinals.

For the first time two Colerain gymnasts, Sue Davis and Sharon Ahr, participated in the State Meet held in Columbus on March 2. The team also secured a third place trophy at the Class 3 District Meet despite tough competition from over twenty teams.

At the Winter Sports Banquet, Sharon Ahr received the award for Most Outstanding Gymnast. The award for the most Improved Gymnast went to Terri Shuckmann. This record proved that 1978-79 was the year Gymnastics came of age under the direction of Coach Schwegler.

Junior Wrestling Cards

The J.V. Wrestling Cards worked hard through a tough season. Although they lost all matches before the 1st of the year, they went 3-1 after Jan. 1st. The young J.V. team improved greatly as the season went on and beat teams such as: Forest Park, McNicholas and Western Hills. They also did a fine job in the J.V. Tournament. With the help of excellent coaching and new talent, we hope to have many improvements as well as an improved overall record.

Colerain Grapplers

The Varsity Wrestling Team played through a tough and difficult season and ended up with a 2-9 record. Although their season was disappointing many of the participating players improved greatly. Bill Engel received the Award of Most Valuable Player as well as the player with the most "Take Downs." The Most Improved Player for throughout the season went to Andy Buck. During each season a Honorary Award known as the WETSU Award goes to a player who shows great leadership and helps the team effort. Bernie Raymond was the recipient of this award.

During the Finneytown Invitationals, Bill Engel took 1st and teammates Bernie Raymond and Larry Mikkelson both placed 3rd. At the St. Xavier Inv. Kevin Fox received 1st and Bill Engel 4th.

The Wrestling Cards hopes for a more promising season in the years that come.

Winter Wonders

The Winter Sports Banquet preceeded in the usual manner this year, by congratulating the students who had participated in the sports and activities of the winter season. The ceremony took place on March 20th and were received with the students and parents of the Boy's basketball teams, Girl's basketball teams, the varsity and J.V. wrestling teams, gymnastic team, the 1978-79 rythemette drill team and the wrestlette squads.

This years turn out was a complete success and was well organized by the faculty as well as the student body.

The Best offensive player went to Stan Henn, the Best defensive player to Greg McKinney and the Best pitcher went to Roger McDowell. Other awards for Great Achievements went to the players that were selected to the 1st Team All County, they were Stan Henn and Roger McDowell, who also was selected on the 2nd Team All City. Honorable Mention went to Randy Thesken and Greg McKinney.

With so much talent coming up next year the Colerain Cardinal Baseball team can only improve on its already outstanding team.

Striking Out The Opposition

The J.V. Baseball team finished their season with a 14-4 record leaving them with a placement of 2nd in the league. Although some troubles had developed throughout their season, they were able to cope with them and still come out ahead.

We look forward to players for our next years team like pitcher Dan Walsh, who had pitched a no-hitter in one of the seasonal games. We also look forward to Tim Bohlin and Ron Cobb, who also played extremely well. These players as well as the rest played very hard and gave alot to the Colerain Cardinal Baseball Team.

The reserve softball team landed a 1st place finish in the league. The girls, for the first time, played against tough varsity teams that are outside their own league. Although they did not beat these teams, the final score was closer than expected.

In the Harrison Varsity Tournament they beat one of the varsity teams in the competition. First year coaching the girls was Mr. Howard Tolbert, who did a fine job in leading these athletes to a first place finish.

Softball Style

The varsity softball team became the league champs this year, by having 13 wins and only 1 loss. They also had a 22 and 3 overall record and in State fast pitch they were the District runner-ups. To add to the list, also were the runner-ups in the Hamilton County Invitational Tournament.

Captains Lauri Beyer and Lori Troescher were selected to the Hamilton County Suburban Athletic Association All Star Team. Debbie Williams and Tina Reece received Honorable Mention.

The girls played a mixed schedule of slow pitch and fast pitch softball in 1979, and they played equally well in both. At the Spring Sports Banquet, Lauri Beyer received the best offensive player award and Debbie Williams took the best defensive award.

This years softball team played harder and better than any softball team around.

Best Of The West Champs

The Flying Cardinal Varsity Track Team achieved great heights this year, while not only breaking records, but also in boosting up the Colerain name in many of the opposing schools.

We ended our season winning the HCA League and became Champs of the K of C Relays, the Lockland Relays, the Colerain Invitationals, the Oxford Sectionals, The Dayton District Runner-ups, as well as the Best of the West Champs. We also placed number #1 in the city ranking.

Throughout the season, records were broken and rebroken in the track and field events. A few of them are Frank Russo in the two-mike run, Orlando Harris in the 100 yd. dash, Blair Hopkins in the mile run as well as the 880 yd run and Mark Taylor in the 300 meter low hurdles.

The seasonal outcome was an all around great season and the members of this outstanding team portrayed their skill and ability to their best.

Spring Surprises . . .

The Spring Sports Banquet is the last to be celebrated for the year. Each year athletes, faculty and parents come to gather for this special event. Like the Fall and Winter banquets, we commend the athletes and the people that are involved with activities that are in the Spring Sports Season.

This special event was held in the school cafeteria and was introduced by Mr. Ben Hubbard. The following names and activities were awarded for their hard work in the Spring Sports Program. The Varsity and J.V. Baseball teams coached by Mr. Colussi and Mr. Wright. The varsity and reserve softball teams coached by first year Mr. Mettey and first year coaching by Mr. Tolbert. Following them were the varsity and J.V. boys track teams coached by Mr. Ken Meibers and the girls track team coached by Ms. Charlotte Eicher. The tennis team finished up with Mr. Margello saying a few words about his boys and their season.

Altogether the banquet went off as a huge success and we are thankful to those that made it such a success.

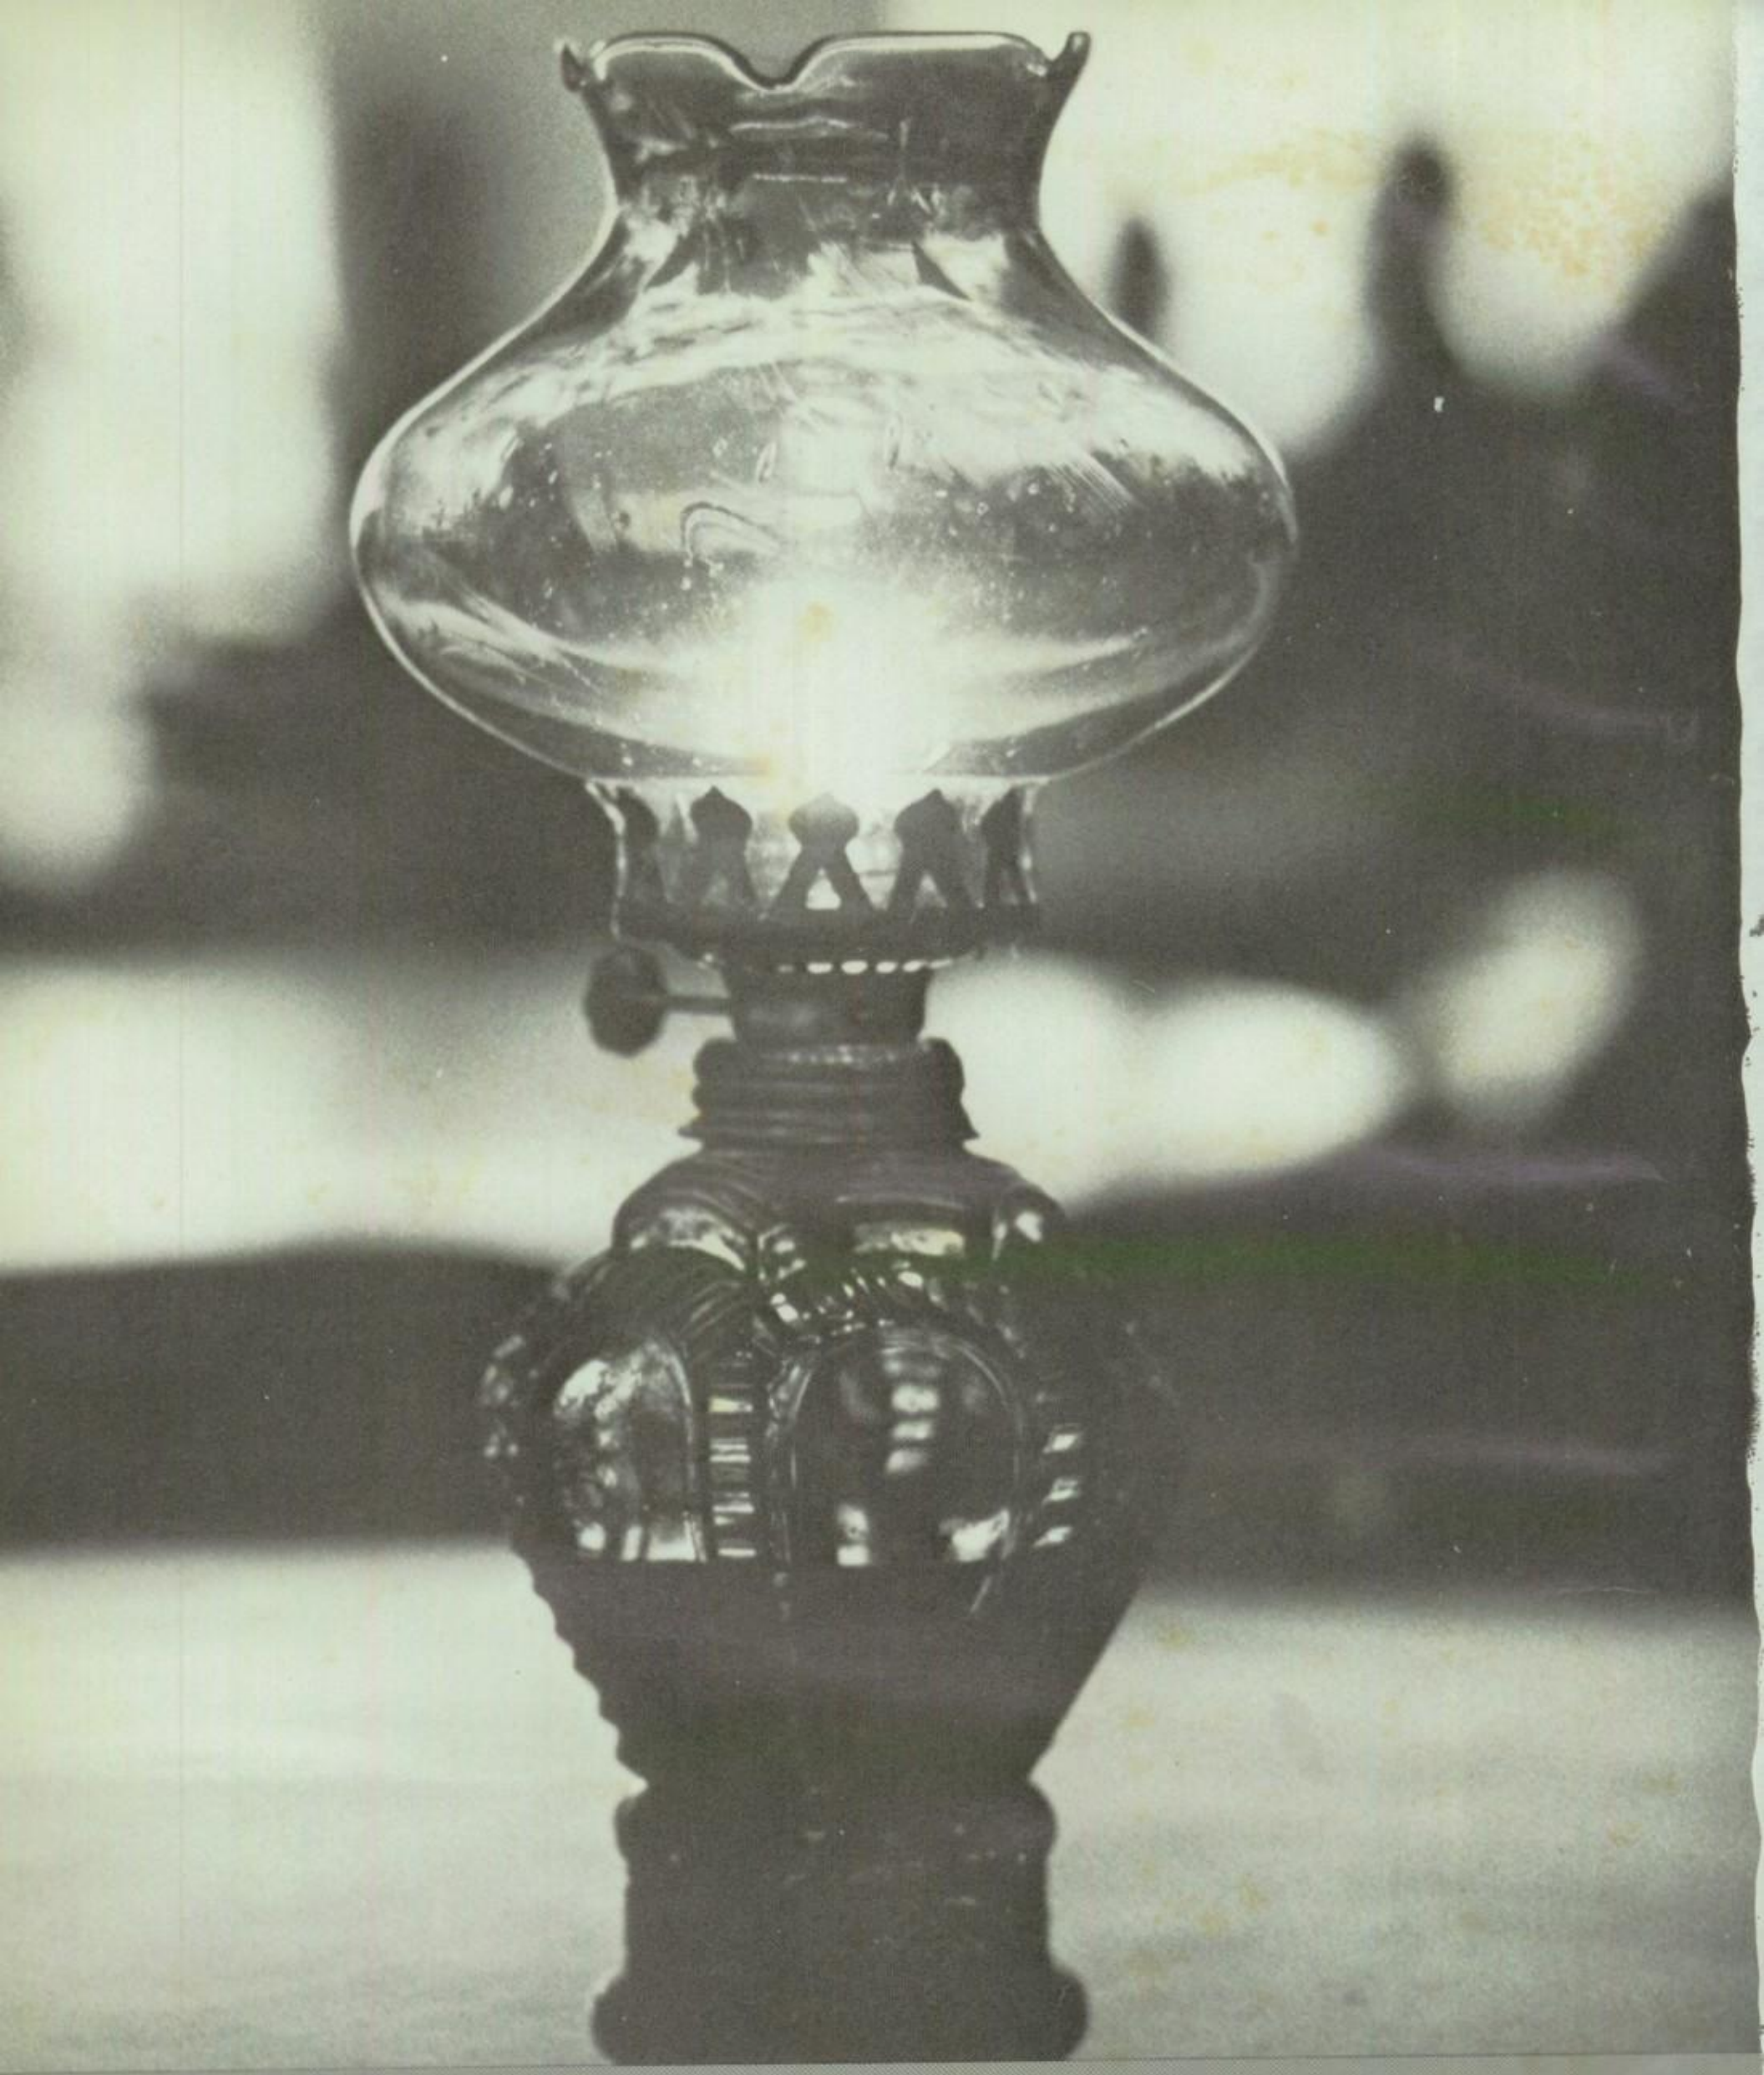
The Cardinal Staff of 1979 started off the year to the tune of rock and roll by sponsoring a Signing Party. It was a Colerain First. The 1978 annual was handed out while students signed yearbooks and listened to Livingston Road II.

The Yearbook Staff worked hard to meet deadlines and produce a fantastic record of 1979. The Staff especially thanks Tammy and Melody Minges for typing the Index. Mrs. Garber's guidance throughout the year was also greatly appreciated.



Each of us is a small flame
Stirred by a raging wind —
We may be going our separate ways
Though we will not lose the spark from which we came —
Colerain.
